WILD SCENES IN CHICAGO COLISEUM

Wood, Lowden and Johnson Vie In Making the Most Noise

HALL RINGS WHEN NAME OF HIRAM MENTIONED

By Associated Press.
COLISEUM, Chicago, June 11.—When the second speeches for Lowden were finished the convention again called for nominations and the name of Hiram Johnson was presented by Charles Wheeler of San Francisco. Wheeler said it was probable that he should begin at high noon. He spoke without manuscript. Scattered ripples of applause came during the early part of Wheeler's address, when he spoke of party unity in the west.

The first real applause came when he spoke of Johnson's opposition to the league of nations.

"You have done California an honor to meet the views of her son on the league of nations," he said.

The crowd cried "no" when he asked whether the republicans were prepared to "take on the royal family" for another term.

When Wheeler referred to Johnson as having inadequate campaign funds the crowd let out a round of jeers and guffaws. There were cheers when Wheeler said Johnson surely would be elected if nominated.

Fireworks Begin.

Johnson fireworks broke loose when Wheeler finished. A big picture of Johnson was unfurled from the gallery rail and the convention floor once more became a picture of pandemonium.

Everybody Shouting.

It was impossible to judge how many delegates were rooting for the candidate because nearly all on the floor got to their feet either to cheer or better see the demonstration.

"Johnson and victory," "I'm for Hiram," "The people want Johnson and America first," were some of the inscriptions on banners carried in the procession. Many in the galleries stood cheering and strained their lungs. At first there was no attempt at organized cheering, however, and every one who wanted Johnson seemed to be taking his own and universally noisy way of showing it. As the demonstration continued the variety of noise making devices increased. Big megaphones were brought into use to magnify the disturbance among the delegates. The demonstration was just half over when the hall was still enough for Senator Lodge to permit Representative Schall, the blind member of congress who seconded the Johnson nomination. Led by a little boy, Schall made his way to the platform and was greeted with a renewed outburst of applause.

TYBO FURNACE BLOWS IN ON JUNE TWENTY

The future of the Tybo smelter, mine and mill are of the most rosy character judging from the optimism radiated from a banquet given at the Mizpah Hotel last evening in honor of the presence of the distinguished coterie of eastern capitalists who spent the last three days in Tonopah and Tybo examining, and getting acquainted with the vast interests owned by the Louisiana Con. Mining company. The party included Julius Siebert, Herman Rawitzer, Cole Corr, T. H. Shaw and R. S. Nichols. These gentlemen represent the stockholders who have made possible the wonderful development made in the vicinity of Tybo during the past year, where, under the direction of F. W. Draper, general manager, the company has installed the most comprehensive and practical equipment possessed by any Nevada property.

The banquet last evening brought out a number of felicitous expressions regarding the investment in which congratulations were exchanged between the visitors and local mining men. The most important event of the evening was greeted with cheers when President Siebert stated that he and his associates were here to stay and that their purses were open at all times to the demands of the management of the Tybo. Mr. Siebert added that his company had authorized the construction of fifteen spacious homes for the employees of the Tybo plant. These homes were to be placed at the disposal of the families dependent on the enterprise and that other improvements of a community nature were planned.

At the suggestion of Manager Draper a movie picture outfit will be installed and the latest films shown twice a week free of charge. Mr. Siebert said he took pride in the opportunity of serving the company and would be pleased to make a personal gift of the movie projector.

Before resuming his seat President Siebert brought another series of applause by affirming that the new furnace at Tybo would be blown in on June 20th to continue in service for an indefinite time.

The visitors left this morning for San Francisco.

Jay Pollard. The ceremony was performed by the judge of the district court with Joe White acting as best man and Miss Nora Rodington acting as bridesmaid. After the marriage the bride was kidnapped by a party of friends who rushed her back to Tonopah, where the bridegroom could inspect the usual kiss. "Pat" was left standing disconsolate as he could not find a car to return the despoilers. After chasing around Goldfield, "Pat" eventually found an accommodating citizen, who brought him to Tonopah where there was a happy reunion at the Mizpah hotel.

LOWDEN IN MAD WHIRL DELEGATES IN FRENZY

By Associated Press.
COLISEUM, Chicago, June 11.—Wood's demonstration lasted 45 minutes. When Chairman Lodge got a hearing, the roll of states was continued. Arkansas yielded to Illinois and Representative Rodenberg, of that state, was presented to nominate Governor Lowden. A big man with a strong voice, Rodenberg spoke without manuscript beginning deliberately then warming up the Lowden supporters to repeated cheering. He got the greatest applause, when he came to his praise of Lowden as a business-like man and administrator of ability in economic and financial lines. As soon as the speech was over Lowden demonstration began, his delegates carrying a big banner with a large picture of the candidate backed to a wooden standard. A long banner urging a business man for president was carried in the Lowden procession. The Lowden delegation seemed to make acclamations of supporters from various state paces as it moved about the hall.

Likened to Lincoln.

Likening Governor Frank O. Lowden unto Lincoln and telling the delegates that once before many years ago Illinois was called upon to furnish a man when the nation was in dire distress, Congressman William A. Rodenberg, of Illinois placed the name of Illinois war governor in nomination for the presidency of the United States.

"Three score years ago," Congressman Rodenberg said, "at a time when the passions of men were stirred to their depths, the nation turned for leadership to Illinois. We gave them Lincoln and grandly, nobly, he met the test. Illinois stands in 1920 ready to consecrate to the service of the republic another of her great sons. We present the patriotic governor of a patriotic state, Frank O. Lowden."

Lowden Parade Riotous.

Illinois, Iowa, Oklahoma, Connecticut, Arkansas, Kentucky delegations showed up among the Lowden pictures in the parade. The lights went off for the movie men and that aroused another wave of noise. Some of the delegate's chairs were overturned as the parade began more riotous and there was much smashing of straw hats as enthusiasts pushed away their way through the crowded convention floor. Fifteen minutes after the demonstration began, it apparently was gaining headway and Senator Lodge was making no effort to stop it.

In the galleries there was a lot of noise, but at first not the coordinated cheering that greeted that which marked the Wood demonstration. Presently, however, some Lowden cheer leaders got busy and loosed repeated cheering from the galleries. Governor Morrow of Kentucky then climbed to the speaker's platform and motioned to the Lowden supporters in the galleries to utter the big American flag draping from the rail. At half an hour parading had about broken up, but the cheering was still in evidence.

Charles Pickett, of Washington, accompanied the Lowden demonstration and said the candidate stood in a lot of form as wide as the nation itself. Mrs. Fletcher Dobbins, of Chicago, also made a scolding speech for Lowden.

U. J. SCHRAIBER, superintendent of the Spanish Bell, came in last evening and will return tomorrow.

FRANK O. LOWDEN

WOOD WILL BE CHOICE PREDICTION

BY W. W. BOOTH.
Editor of The Bonanza.
CHICAGO, June 11.—The convention met this morning when the resolutions committee was not ready to report and the convention adjourned to this afternoon. Then the platform was read and adopted unanimously. The party plank refused to pledge the party to any ratification with or without reservations. It is a good natural crowd. While waiting today for the resolution committee's report the audience sang the popular songs, among them, "How Dry I Am." The weather is very warm.

Lowden is out of the fight. His strength goes to Wood and on the fourth ballot Wood will be nominated. Yesterday Hoover was conceded the nominee, but Lowden, after the first ballot, by throwing his votes to Wood, makes him the nominee. Wood tonight has one vote on the first ballot. Frank Norcross of Nevada, will second Wood's nomination. Wingfield, national committeeman, accompanied by his wife, felt to night for Reno. Senator Henderson was at the convention today.

THREE DAY PROGRAM FOR FOURTH OF JULY

The citizens committee entrusted with the Fourth of July celebration will have the assistance of the American Legion in performing a three days program.

WOOD GETS THE START IN BEDLAM OF NOISE

By Associated Press.
COLISEUM, Chicago, June 11.—Late again in getting under way, the republican national convention met under an agreement to stay in session until the presidential candidate has been nominated. Delegates were far an all day and possibly all night session. At 10 o'clock the secretary began calling the roll of states for nomination. Arkansas passed and Arizona yielded to Kansas for the nomination of Governor Wood by Governor Hiram Allen. The nomination of Wood was seconded by Frank Knox, of New Hampshire, and Mrs. Douglas Robinson of New York. Governor Allen worked hard at his speech and his speech rolled down in catenaries over his quickly wilted body. At the concluding word of his nominating speech thousands of many colored turkey feathers which have been the convention badge of Wood people were tossed from the ceiling of the Coliseum and floated down over the cheering delegates.

Wood Demonstration.

Approximately two hundred delegates were taking part in the cheering and flag waving. Many of those on the floor yelled like real Indians and they looked like Indians with the hair of the women and the calves of the men decorated by falling feathers.

"It's Wood, let's go," seemed the motto running through the confusion of shouting. At one corner bunches of Rooters kept up a continual ton ton of hysterical Philippine music. "It's Wood, let's go" also was printed on many of blue and white banners waving over the Wood group. When the demonstration had been on about ten minutes the inevitable procession started. It was led by delegates from Minnesota and started making its way about the convention hall just as Senator Lodge came to the front of the platform and rapped for order. He went back again and sat down and the parade gathered momentum.

Prospect of Long Session.

Convention managers saw prospects of a very long session when the demonstration went on and as they guessed supporters of other candidates would try to outdo the Wood people with the result that the hall might be long delayed. At the twenty miles post the delegates showed signs of quitting but the galleries took up the din.

GOMPERS NOT PLEASED WITH LABOR PLANK

By Associated Press.
MONTREAL, June 11.—The labor plank adopted by the republican convention was condemned here today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor particularly that section of the plank providing for the settlement of public utility strikes by public tribunals.

PROFITEERING SUIT QUASHED

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 11.—Indictments charging profiteering against the American Woolen companies of New York and Massachusetts and William Wood, president of the corporations, were quashed today by federal Judge Mack, who sustained a demurrer that woolen goods do not constitute wearing apparel and therefore, do not come within the meaning of the Lever act.

QUINCY STANDS FOR OPEN SHOP

By Associated Press.
QUINCY, Ill., June 11.—The open shop struggle is now well under way in Quincy.

The announcement of the Quincy American Open Shop Association has been followed by the appointment of a committee by the Trades and Labor Assembly of the city to resist the open shop movement.

Quincy is a strongly organized labor city, the assembly counting a membership of over 4000 and embracing even the fire department. The labor committee has succeeded thus far in securing the withdrawal of several of the original signers of the open shop agreement. On the other hand, the open shop association reports the recruiting of some 50 names in addition to the original list, and these, it is said, more than offset defections.

Retail houses thus far have been slow to endorse the plan, owing to the large number of union men.

GREEN OYSTERS ARE A GREAT DELICACY

By Associated Press.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 11.—How Virginia oyster men profited by the discovery that green-gilled oysters which they had discarded as worthless were identical with the famous Marston green oysters which are considered a great delicacy in France is one of the interesting facts disclosed by Professor Philip H. Mitchell, of Brown University, in an informal resume of his researches in oyster culture.

HOOVER IS RECEIVED COLDLY BY THE FLOOR

By Associated Press.
COLISEUM, Chicago, June 11.—With the nominating speeches for Johnson, Lowden and Wood out of the way, Speaker Gillette of the house of representatives took the platform and placed in nomination Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts. Gillette's nominating speech got repeated cheers. After the speeches following Coolidge, Delaware was named and Florida yielded to North Carolina for the nomination of Judge Bratton. Former Senator Butler made the nominating speech. Other states were passed to New York and James Mills took the platform to nominate Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler.

Herbert Hoover was placed in nomination, by Nathan I. Miller of Syracuse.

Few delegates joined in the applause that followed the speech of Nathan Miller, nominating Hoover, but there was far greater talk from the galleries. When the cheering showed no abatement at the end of six minutes Senator Simon, told High 11, Brown of Nevada, pronounced with his speech endorsing Hoover's nomination, and increased the determination of the Hoovers to have their demonstration out and they kept up so great a din while Brown spoke that hardly a man in the whole convention understood him.

Greeted by cheers and applause, former Governor Frank Willis, made the nominating speech for Senator Harding, of Ohio. Governor Sprague, of Pennsylvania, was placed in nomination by Mayor Moore of Philadelphia.

West Virginia was called and Joseph Sanders nominated Senator Schereland. As the end of the nominating speeches drew near the leaders were discussing a plan to take two ballots and then adjourn until the morning.

STILL ANOTHER WEDDING SURPRISE AT GOLDFIELD

The younger element of Tonopah seems partial to the neighboring gold camp for matrimonial adventures. Last evening two more young people of this camp surprised their friends by motoring over to Goldfield to have the bonds tied. They were Miss Eleanor Malone and Milton Pollard, son of Mr. and Mrs.
